Founded in 1967, it is the oldest business school in the Rhineland-Palatinate. The school offers undergraduate and graduate programs. With around 4,500 students, the institution is composed of a campus of 29,000 m² at the Gerwitzer Friedhof, a college of economics and business administration (HFG) and an additional campus that offers programs in craftsmanship. The campus at Gerwitzer Friedhof, with its traditional ambience, was initially used as a TV studio. The program also has an additional campus in Holzmarkt-Neustadt, located near the European Southern Observatory, and a fifth campus at the ZTL IDS campus of the Karlsruhe Institute of Technology (KIT). History In the early days of the Federal Republic of Germany, the "Ernst-Rlmann-Technikum" was the only private teacher's college and business school to offer a business education. Karlsruhe in 1938 was one of the first cities in Germany where a school offering business education was founded. At this time, the Technikum was a part of the "Karlsruher Handelsschule". During the "Kulturkampf" (cultural struggle) of the 1930s, the school was closed in 1933, its remaining staff transferred to the newly founded "Leibheits-Ost-Schule". In 1935 the school reopened in the "Kunst Haus" at Gerwitzer Friedhof, where students could continue their education while building the "Ernst-Rlmann-Technikum". After the Second World War, all colleges, including the
