Gibbons Born William Christopher Gibbons (February 25, 1944, in Johnstown, New York), Billy Gibbons is a guitarist, singer, and songwriter best known for his work as the guitarist and vocalist with the rock band ZZ Top. Gibbons is the only guitarist to ever perform with all three members of ZZ Top: bassist Dusty Hill and drummer Frank Beard have worked alongside him for more than forty years; original singer and keyboard player Tommy Wells left the band in 2007. Gibbons' distinctive 'rimshot' left-handed guitar style is among the most recognisable in rock music. Born to a working-class father in a one-room schoolhouse, Gibbons' musical career began in the early '60s, when he was in a band with his brother Danny and cousin Eugene, who later changed their name to Rusty, moved to Dallas, Texas, and were discovered by record producer Leon Russell. Russell bought their first single and they went on to record five studio albums, two live albums, and a handful of singles.
Gibbons' first guitar performance with ZZ Top was at the 1968 Monterey Pop Festival, and the band went on to become one of the world's biggest bands. He has played with ZZ Top over 600 times, and his songs have appeared in at least 40 films. Gibbons also does live shows featuring his virtuoso guitar performances. He has recorded more than 30 albums and has won three Grammy Awards, including the award for Best Rock Instrumental Performance for "Jesus Just Left Chicago." He is also a trained artist and woodworker, and owns and operates Billy Gibbons Woodworks
