Ejay Techno 4 Reloaded V4.02.0017-CHAOS [deepstatus] Crack A.Q: Javascript / jQuery - passing variable from form input to the php file for testing I have this problem with passing variable into php file. Basically, I have submit button that has variable field that is hidden by default. So, when the user clicks the submit button, he will have to fill the hidden input field value so that the javascript can send it with the rest of the form data into php. The issue is, it does not seem to work the way it is supposed to. here is the code:
JS file: `$("#submitBtn").click(function() { $.ajax({ type: "POST", url: "somenamephpfile", data: {"fieldVariableToSend": $("#fieldVariableToSend").val()}, dataType: "text", success: function(data) { alert("The server response was: " + data); console.log(data); } }); });` HTML:
